Gang Presentation for Direct Care Workers

The Fall River Police Station hosted a gang presentation for those working directly with SSYI and Shannon youth, which provided not only in-depth information and insight into our youth gang violence issue, but also provided a great opportunity for dialogue and networking.

An Outreach Thanksgiving

Outreach workers and youth were hard at work cooking and enjoying a delicious Thanksgiving meal to celebrate a great program. This was a great team event that the Shannon and SSYI youth enjoyed!

School Community Partnership Hard at Work

It has been a tremendous school year so far for the School Community Partnership. This collaboration of school and community-based representatives has been hard at work exploring our youth's needs while developing goals and action steps for the 2014-2015 school year. Thank you to all of our participants!

Fall River Children's Christmas Parade

The 30th Annual Fall River Children's Christmas Parade was a huge success! Youth and Outreach Workers from the Youth Outreach Program were hard at work participating in the parade and having fun along the way. It was a great festive volunteer event!

Shannon Youth Court Project

Shannon youth who are part of Greater Fall River Re-Creations Youth Outreach Program have been hard at work for a Youth Court Project. They were able to build vocational and teamwork skills through a tremendous hands-on carpentry project. Great job, guys!
